MEMORIES of the Old South in Every Can of This Wonderful Old Secret Blend

The romantic days of Andrew Jackson, Henry Clay, the pirate chief, LaFitte, and the beautiful women and brave men of the old South, cling to every cup of delicious old French Market Coffee, the wonderful old secret blend that is known all over the world.

The Wonderful Old Secret Blend

Think of the quaint stalls where belles and beaux congregated after festive occasions for the crowning pleasure of a good-night cup of this wonderful beverage!

The French Market Coffee that you get from your grocer, in perfectly-sealed packages, is identical with the historical French blend served in the old French Market in New Orleans 50 years ago.

Try it and you'll agree there is only one real old French Market Coffee — only one French Market flavor.

This International Harvester Engine Fills Your Needs

THIS I H C hopper-cooled engine meets the demand for an engine that can easily be mounted in an arm truck, making a portable outfit for use with special machinery, such as well drills, concrete mixers, sawries, and portable pimping plants.

The outfit is very compact, the weight moderate yet sufficient, and comparatively small amount of water is needed for cooling. In a hopper-cooled engine there is also less danger of harm from freezing, as the open top of the hopper allows the water to expand.

This engine contains all the good features mentioned in our previous advertisements and many others which you will appreciate when you see them. It is one of the most satisfactory engines made, from the point of view of economy. It starts and runs with the steadless of a steam engine, and we know of no better machine for the rough, heavy work of the average farm:

ALBERT BALLIN.

London, April 18 .- A letter reeived by a British concern from Albert Ballin, German steamship magnate, written before the war and exhorting England not to become involved, has been made public here. Herr Ballin recites an interview with the Kaisor in which he asserts the ruler of Clermany declared he was averse to war and insisted that the Emperor was in no way responsible for the beginning of hostilities. Here Ballin has acted as the Imperial Government's mouthpiece for the American press on several necesions, having given several extengive interviews.
